84TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 11356

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JUNE 27, 1956

Ordered to lie on the table and to be printed

AMENDMENTS

Intended to be proposed by Mr. YOUNG (for himself, Mr. RUSSELL, Mr. CARLSON, and Mr. JOHNSTON of South Carolina) to the bill (H. R. 11356) to amend further the Mutual Security Act of 1954, as amended, and for other purposes, viz:

1 On page 51, at the end of line 12, strike out the double 2 quotation marks.

3 On page 51, after line 12, insert the following:

4 “Section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 5 1933, as amended, is amended by adding at the end thereof
6 a new subsection as follows:

7 “(g) Whenever the Secretary of Agriculture deter-
8 mines that there is, or that there is likely to be, a surplus 9 of any agricultural commodity in the United States, no such

1 commodity and no product thereof shall be permitted to be
2 entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption dur-
3 ing any calendar or marketing year in excess of the annual 4 average quantity of such commodity or product, as the case
5 may be, entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consump-
6 tion during the three calendar years immediately preceding 7 such calendar or marketing year: Provided, That whenever 8 any agricultural commodity or whenever any product thereof
9 is subject to quantitative import limitations under subsection 10 (b) of this section, that commodity or that product, as the 11 case may be, shall not be subject to the quantitative import 12 limitations imposed by this subsection. To assure to the 13 maximum extent practicable equitable treatment among ex-
14 porting countries and to prevent excessive imports of any 15 class or kind of agricultural commodity or of any particular 16 product of such commodity, the Secretary of Agriculture, to 17 the extent he deems such action necessary to effectuate either
18 of these objectives, is authorized and directed to establish 19 reasonable classifications of any agricultural commodity and 20 of the products thereof on the basis of either their physical 21 qualities, value, use, or upon such other basis as he shall 22 determine, and to specify the quantities of each commodity
23 and of each product thereof, or of any class, kind, type, grade, 24 or other specification or classification thereof, which may be 25 entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption

1 during any calendar or marketing year or portion thereof.
2 Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect any 3 right, privilege, or remedy otherwise provided by this section
4 or by section 7 of the Act of June 16, 1951, as amended.

5 “For the purposes of this subsection, (1) the term 6 “product” or “products” means any article or articles in-7 cluded within or classifiable under each paragraph of 8 schedules 7 and 9 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as originally 9 enacted or as amended, and the articles included within each
10 paragraph of said schedules or within such further classifica-
11 tion as may be made by the Secretary of Agriculture shall 12 be deemed to be a separate product, and (2) any agricul-
13 tural commodity in the United States shall be deemed to 14 be in surplus whenever any class, kind, type, grade, or 15 other specification thereof, is or may reasonably be expected
16 to be in excess of domestic requirements, adequate carryover, 17 and anticipated exports, as determined by the Secretary of 18 Agriculture.

19 “The enforcement provisions of the Tariff Act of 1930, 20 as amended, shall be applicable for the enforcement of the 21 provisions of this subsection.’ ”
